The Task

Create a comic strip of a scene from the book with 9 sections and some dialogue (spoken parts). You should write an introduction to the comic strip explaining why you chose this scene. For non-fiction books, instead of dialogues, you can write short summaries of specific parts you think are important for each section of the comic strip.

Check-list for a successful project

- Includes the title of the book, the author and the book series at the top of the page. Includes
- an introduction of 40-50 words.
- The comic strip has 9 sections.
- There is dialogue in each section.
- The text is at least 100 words in total.
- Don't copy or paste pictures from the book.

Useful Tips

- You can draw the pictures, use pictures from newspapers and magazines or even take actual photos that are related to the scenes in the book.
- You can rewrite the dialogue or even write a dialogue that didn't appear in the book. Make sure you stay in context.
- Consider the physical appearance of the characters, the environment and the era.
- Use your imagination. It is in your hands to make your project stand out. Originality and creativity are key!
